50. Memoriams

In memory of our son, Larry Houston, who left us sixteen years ago, January 10, 1965.

Have you ever lost a love one
who was very dear to you?
One you loved so much and
miss him like we do.
Oh, the memory of that sad
snowy night when we knew
he was dead.
Our hearts were crushed with sorrow and
many tears were shed,
He was called away so
sudden.
Without a last goodbye,
Only God in Heaven knows
the reason why.
Softly the stars shine upon
his lonely grave.
Where he sleeps without dreaming.
The one we loved so dear.
But could not save.

Our hearts still ache with sadness.
And many tears are shed.
Only God knows how much
we miss you, Larry.
At the end of sixteen long
years.
We will never forget you
Larry.

Letters

Dear Editor;

On behalf of the Appomattox Red Cross Blood Services program, I wish to thank you for the excellent article on the front page of the Times-Virginian in your December 18 edition. With all the good publicity from you and WTTX Radio plus all the other notices which were sent, I am sure that everyone must have known about the bloodmobile visit on December 22.

We did have a good turnout considering the time of year and the fact that so many have been sick. We had a record number to register, 175, and collected a record number of units, 158. We did have ample supply through Christmas. We also had a record number of first-timers, a grand total of 26. The closest to this was 17 first-timers. Five of our 26 were students. Names of our first-timers are as follows: Sharon Shumaker, Samuel Wilson, Henry Lee Williamson, Jr., R. Keith Coleman, Sandra Reynolds, G. Duane Blanks, Sharon Doss, Judith Volturo, Philip D. Jacobs, Lawrence W. Justus, Jr., Samuel B. Driskill, III, Sandra Cobbs, Nancy Allen, Cecil Deaner, Nancy Vandeveer, Warren B. Page, Gloria Cashwell, Samuel Shorter, Richard Garrison, Roger Walton, Richard Lively, Julia Coffman, Matt Ranson, Larry Lipscomb, Carole Beatty, and Linda McGuire. A special thanks to all of you who took this first important step. I will agree that is does take courage to make this first visit to the bloodmobile and I do hope that all of you will continue to donate blood. A big thanks to our repeat donors too.

Thanks to all of our volunteers who made the visit possible. There were many who shared in the canteen for the Christmas visit. A great many caring ladies made those homemade cookies, Pepsi Cola bottling furnished Pepsi, Kings, juice, Lee Grant Motel, ice, Parkway Grocery, cheese, cub scouts pack 546, cookies, Wilbuns, snack crackers.

Happy New Year to all.

Alice C. Martin
Chairman Blood Services

Editor's Note: The following letter was sent to the Times-Virginian by Robert E. West of Appomattox County. To the staff of the Times-Virginian and all of my friends and relatives:

I would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year and hope that everyone had a nice and safe Christmas. Also, I would like to say hello to all the future Marines there. I am enjoying my tour here in Okinawa, Japan.

Sincerely yours,
Robert E. West

Students seek new gym equipment

For the past two months students at the Appomattox Elementary School have been collecting Fun 'N' Fitness Seals in order to obtain all kinds of free gymnastic equipment. Students have worked together long and hard toward their goal of receiving equipment by this means.

"I have been very surprised and pleased to find people all over the United States that want to help us on this project," said Mrs. Herbert Chambers, PTA Chairman for this project.

Following communication with a National Coupon Shoppers Magazine and the Lady's Circle Magazine, telling them of the project, Mrs. Chambers received responses from Louisana, Florida, California, Kansas, Oklahoma, Minnesota and New York. Some responding have even promised to enlist the help of friends and relatives and will continue to save for the school here.

"We truly have neighbors all over the United States," said Mrs. Chambers, "and the project doesn't expire until June so we all still have plenty of time left to accomplish great things.

For further information call Mrs. Herbert Chambers, phone 352-8905.

Inclement-weather plan announced

A plan for notifying parents and students about inclement-weather school closings was announced this week by Appomattox County School Superintendent Johnny Walton.

Walton said when weather conditions develop during the night which result in closing schools the next day, the following radio and TV stations will be notified prior to 7 a.m.:

In Lynchburg, WSET-TV Channel 13, as well as radio stations WLVA, WLGM, WLLL, WWOD, and WBRG.

In Roanoke, television stations WSLS (TV-10), and WDBJ (TV-7) will be notified;

In Appomattox, radio station WTTX will carry the announcements, and in Farmville, radio station WFLO will be notified of the school closings."

Walton added that if it becomes necessary to close schools for more than one day, the announcement will be made, if possible, over the above stations in time for the evening news programs.

He added that if no announcement is made that schools will be closed, they will be opened. He asked that parents and students please listen to one of the above stations to receive information regarding the closing of schools and avoid calling the bus shop early in the morning when the telephone is needed for contact with the drivers.

Because of weather conditions or some other emergency, it may become necessary to close schools early in the day, Walton added. He asked that parents give their children instructions to follow in the event of early arrival at home when no one is there.

Building upon a rock

By WILLIAM L. TRIMYER
Building Upon A Rock-Like Faith
Lesson for January 11, 1981
Bible Study Passage: Matthew 7:13-29
Introduction

Life has many dramatic crossroads which call us to the sometimes awesome task of making choices. There are times when we honestly dislike having to make decisions. To choose between one thing and another presents us with both challenge and fear. We don't care to make judgments because we're concerned that we won't make the correct one. The easiest choices to make are those where we have access to all the information we need to decide. The hard choices are those we must make while partially "blind folded."

Which Way To Go? [Matthew 7:13-14]

One day a man was offered a job that promised more than the one he held. Jobs were scarce, and to consider changing in such insecure times was highly threatening. What did he do? He chose to stay and wrestle all his life with a job he did not like. Sound familiar?

Quite often we choose the path of least resistance rather than the path that challenges us. We soon discover much to our chagrin that the easy way is not always the best. There's a saying I've heard all my life that speaks to this dilemma, namely, "All that glitters is not gold!"

Jesus' disciples were faced with the constant pressure to choose the easier path. We, too, face the radical choice to go our own way or to follow the rough path that leads to life both abundant and eternal. The words of Jesus are a constant remainder to seek after the path of self sacrifice and to avoid the way that promises everything but delivers nothing but misery.

Listen To The Right Voices [Matthew 7:15-20]

Voices, voices, everywhere! Which are we to listen to? Who speaks the truth and does not confuse us with mumble-jumbo? Some of the religious and political voices of our time are bent on leading us astray. Many persons don't care for a "thinking man's religion." They want a church or a religious leader who will make all of their moral and ethical decisions for them. How easy it is to remove ourselves from a faith that struggles and questions after the truth. How easy it is in our day and age to be seduced by those who sound off in our favor, but whose motivations are selfish.

It is pathetic to see how some persons are deceived by others. But what is even more pathetic is the person who is guilty of self-deception. Jesus speaks of such persons in Matthew 7:21-23. Here Jesus cautions against those who appear religious but who actually are engaged in self-serving.

The Apostle Paul cautions us not to engage in self-boasting and self-serving. There are those who are masters in the art of deceiving others but who fail in recognizing their own self-deception and emptiness.

Building On The Rocks [Matthew 7:24-29]

One does not go out to build a home over quick sand or over a swamp. We build homes upon strong foundations. In the same sense the Christian is called to build his or her faith upon a solid foundation. It's the foundation that is so important for building homes and building lives.

We have a rich Christian heritage upon which to build our present and our future. We don't start from scratch; we begin where others have gone before and left their tracks. Thankfully, we turn to Jesus who shows us the way and gives to us the means with which to build.

Welfare charges set

The Virginia Department of Welfare announced this week that the United States Department of Agriculture is making changes in the Food Stamp Program affecting deductions and maximum coupon allotments.

These changes, effective January 1, 1981, are:

. the standard deduction for households will be increased from $75 to $85;

. the shelter/dependent care deduction will be increased from $90 to $115;

. the maximum coupon allotment will also be increased. For example, the allotment for a one person household will increase from $63 to $70; for a four person household from $209 to $233.

There will be no change in the maximum amount of income allowed per household. However, because of the increases in deductions, persons who were formerly slightly over the income level may be eligible to receive food stamps after January 1, 1981.

Lance Chernault

Chernault excels

Lance Chernault, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Chernault, formerly of Appomattox, Virginia, was the star of the Woodlawn Warriors' of Fairfax County football team this past year.

Lance played both offense and defense, also returned punts and kickoffs. He played running back and linebacker.

Lance scored 14 touchdowns and was voted the most valuable offensive player. He received four trophys, several awards and was picked on the All Star Team. He scored the winning touchdown in the Fort Belvoir Bowl game. He received a trophy in the Vienna All Star game, which was presented by John McDaniels, wide receiver of the Washington Redskins.

Lance gained over 400 yards this season and ran a punt back 54 yards.

Lance said he hopes to get back to Appomattox soon to see all his friends.

ABC profits

Profits generated by the state Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the first quarter (July through September) of the 1980-81 fiscal year have resulted in distribution of $5,622,900.36 to Virginia's counties, cities and towns, according to a release from the ABC office.

Appomattox County's locality share for that period of time totaled $9,720.28, according to the release.

The town of Appomattox will receive $1,692.38 and Pamplin will get $476.28.

The statewide figure represents two-thrids of the Department's profits for the period following statutory adjustments and a one-third distribution to the General Fund of the Commonwealth.

In addition, the county of Appomattox will receive $1,309.87 from the state's wine liter tax revenue.

Forage meet set

The traditional forage conference sponsored by Extension and the Virginia Forage and Grassland Council is scheduled for January 27, 1981 at the American Legion Building in Chase City. One of the highlights of the program again this year will be a report by the recipient of the VFGC Outstanding Forage Producer Award. This year's winner is Mr. Bill Moore of Amelia who will discuss the forage program on his beef farm.

Other important and timely topics discussed will include "Stretching the Available Forage Supply this Winter" by Dr. John Gerken. This is certainly necessary following the dry season this year! Dr. Dale Wolf will discuss some of the latest forage research results at Virginia Tech, particularly the establishment of alfalfa by no-till methods.
